

GARY L. HEIDENREICH

Education

BSIE, New Mexico State University
MBA, Finance, University of Dallas

Professional Background

- Retired from Juniper Networks in 2000, as Vice President of Operations of this start up company.
- Prior to that worked for 14 years at 3Com Corp as Vice President of Systems Manufacturing.
- Previous 13 years at various high-tech companies in the Dallas, San Antonio and Silicon Valley areas.

Non-Profit Experience

- Currently President of the Board for the Zen Hospice Project in San Francisco, which provides end-of-life care and counseling.
- Member of the Sovereign Order of St. John, a philanthropic organization.
- Formerly on the Board of the San Francisco Symphony, Vice President of The San Jose Repertory Company, and Vice President/Finance Chair of Casa de Milagros, an orphanage in Peru.

Personal

Since retirement has been involved with both commercial and residential real estate development, partnered in drilling seven natural gas wells, and helped found an art gallery and a restaurant in San Francisco.

Along with his wife, Mr. Heidenreich enjoys traveling, the theatre, and taking in the sights of California. Spent most of the last few years focusing on their home in San Jose, local families, and their new Maltipoo puppy, Lily.